Cyberbullying refers to the use of social media or the internet to threaten, humiliate or target another person.

However, not everyone agrees on when to label a situation as cyberbullying.

Q1. If students at your teen’s school did the following, would you label it cyberbullying?

Sharing a photo altered to make a classmate appear fatter than in real life.

- Definitely not cyberbullying ................................................................. 1
- Probably not cyberbullying ............................................................... 2
- Probably cyberbullying ................................................................. 3
- Definitely cyberbullying ................................................................. 4

Q2. If students at your teen’s school did the following, would you label it cyberbullying?

Posting rumors online that a certain student was caught cheating on a test.

- Definitely not cyberbullying ................................................................. 1
- Probably not cyberbullying ............................................................... 2
- Probably cyberbullying ................................................................. 3
- Definitely cyberbullying ................................................................. 4

Q3. If students at your teen’s school did the following, would you label it cyberbullying?

Posting rumors online that a student had sex at school.

- Definitely not cyberbullying ................................................................. 1
- Probably not cyberbullying ............................................................... 2
- Probably cyberbullying ................................................................. 3
- Definitely cyberbullying ................................................................. 4
Q4. If students at your teen’s school did the following, would you label it cyberbullying?

Twitter campaign to elect a certain student for homecoming court, as a mean joke.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Definitely not cyberbullying</th>
<th>Probably not cyberbullying</th>
<th>Probably cyberbullying</th>
<th>Definitely cyberbullying</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1</td>
<td>2</td>
<td>3</td>
<td>4</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Q5. In this situation, what would be an appropriate school punishment for students found responsible?

Sharing a photo altered to make a classmate appear fatter than in real life.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Suspension</th>
<th>Detention</th>
<th>Apology to student in photo</th>
<th>Refer to law enforcement</th>
<th>None</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1</td>
<td>2</td>
<td>3</td>
<td>4</td>
<td>5</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Q6. In this situation, what would be an appropriate school punishment for students found responsible?

Posting rumors online that a certain student was caught cheating on a test.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Suspension</th>
<th>Detention</th>
<th>Apology to the student</th>
<th>Refer to law enforcement</th>
<th>None</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1</td>
<td>2</td>
<td>3</td>
<td>4</td>
<td>5</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Q7. In this situation, what would be an appropriate school punishment for students found responsible?

Posting rumors online that a certain student had sex at school.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Suspension</th>
<th>Detention</th>
<th>Apology to the student</th>
<th>Refer to law enforcement</th>
<th>None</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1</td>
<td>2</td>
<td>3</td>
<td>4</td>
<td>5</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Q8. In this situation, what would be an appropriate school punishment for students found responsible?

Twitter campaign to elect a certain student for homecoming court, as a mean joke.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Suspension</th>
<th>Detention</th>
<th>Apology to the student</th>
<th>Refer to law enforcement</th>
<th>None</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1</td>
<td>2</td>
<td>3</td>
<td>4</td>
<td>5</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Q9. If your child was found to be responsible for the following situation, what would be an appropriate school punishment?

Sharing a photo altered to make a classmate appear fatter than in real life.

Suspension .......................................................... 1
Detention .......................................................... 2
Apology to student in photo .............................. 3
Refer to law enforcement ................................. 4
None ................................................................. 5

Q10. If your child was found to be responsible for the following situation, what would be an appropriate school punishment?

Posting rumors online that a certain student was caught cheating on a test.

Suspension .......................................................... 1
Detention .......................................................... 2
Apology to the student ................................. 3
Refer to law enforcement ................................. 4
None ................................................................. 5

Q11. If your child was found to be responsible for the following situation, what would be an appropriate school punishment?

Posting rumors online that a certain student had sex at school.

Suspension .......................................................... 1
Detention .......................................................... 2
Apology to the student ................................. 3
Refer to law enforcement ................................. 4
None ................................................................. 5

Q12. If your child was found to be responsible for the following situation, what would be an appropriate school punishment?

Twitter campaign to elect a certain student for homecoming court, as a mean joke.

Suspension .......................................................... 1
Detention .......................................................... 2
Apology to the student ................................. 3
Refer to law enforcement ................................. 4
None ................................................................. 5

Participants were also asked demographic questions on gender, race/ethnicity, annual household income, education and insurance status.